Headline:
Sunny spells and the odd shower.

Today:
After a chilly start it will be a slightly warmer day than yesterday with sunny spells and a few showers, these most frequent in western regions. Brisk northwesterly winds easing through the day. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Tonight:
It will be a dry night for most with some clear spells, though the odd shower will continue in the far west. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Saturday:
A fine and mostly dry day with just the odd shower in the far west, though plenty of sunshine to start. Turning windier and cloudier into the afternoon. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Sunshine and showers throughout Sunday and Monday, though feeling warmer in any sunshine. Remaining breezy with some isolated showers on Tuesday.
